

like all good horror movies
it concerns revenge

a man reaching out
with a hammer

& touching the grey fruit
of his gutter

then the bees
upon him like

a glove like his whole body a hand

ripening
with pus the movie

is about ghosts really
about the dead

& their dying
needs for example

a girl stung
& her need

for epinephrine a boy
in a greenhouse

& his need
for a key

even the earth
near the end

cracks open & speaks the bees

it says i need
i need i need
